

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

2010 The Soap Factory Volunteer Biennial

Deadline for submissions: FRIDAY, OCTOBER 8

The Soap Factory invites all active volunteers to submit their visual or performance artwork for the 2010 Volunteer Biennial entitled A Very Much More. The show will run from November 13 through December 5.

New and old, everyday and exotic, scrapped together and manufactured, common and eclectic, A Very Much More is seeking artwork that explores a state of transition where things are caught raw and alive, their fate not yet determined. Imagine an odd bazaar where people and things come together with their histories and leave in a new direction. Emulating The Soap Factory's own atmosphere of borrowing and building anew, the 2010 Biennial pays homage to a community based in renewal.

Eligibility

All Soap Factory volunteers from the 2009 or 2010 season are eligible to submit work. If you do not volunteer on a regular basis, please contact Lillian Egner, lillian@soapfactory.org, with questions about eligibility.

Submission Requirements & Materials

Visual Artists:

- Brief artist statement (around half a page)
- You may submit up to five pieces for consideration. Please submit images of your work as JPEGs either via e-mail or on a CD. Video and media artists via DVD. For JPEGs, make sure the image is of high quality, with the shortest side 600 pixels or larger, but not to exceed 2000 pixels.
- List of image information with title, medium, and dimensions for each work included.
- Please include your name, contact information, and technical requirements for each piece.

Performance Artists:

- Brief artist statement (around half a page)
- Performance proposal with related images/video/audio. Same format as above.
- Please include your name, contact information, and technical requirements for each piece.

Note: Artists are responsible for installing their own work! (Please keep this in mind when choosing the pieces you submit.)

E-mail submissions to: volunteer.biennial@gmail.com
